

"YOU DON'T KNOW HOW TO MAKE THE FIRST MOVE GRACEFULLY"

The name of the piece describes and illustrates greatly the spirit of this work. A solo performance based on motion capture extracts and unpremeditated movements on the same thematic. In this work the performer loses and finds herself back continuously according to particular positions in the space within the support of an interactive environment of sensors, sound, video, and light.

The contribution of the dancer and her performances are extremely significant and accurate. Her human feminine figure brings back and reflects her culture with the fragilities the beauty and the incertitude of everyday life actions.
